Season Three

2007

Tues 2nd October The Queen

GB (2006) Stars: Helen Mirren & Michael Sheen Dir: Stephen Frears

Witty & ingenious look at the moment that rocked the House of Windsor: the week that followed the sudden death of Princess Diana.

Tues 6th November Tsotsi

South Africa/GB (2005) Dir: Gavin Hood

This adaptation of Athol Fugard's novel about a young gang leader offers rare insight into South African life after apartheid. Oscar for Best Foreign Language Film 2005.

Tues 4th December The Ladykillers

GB (1955) Stars: Alec Guinness, Peter Sellers & Katie Johnson. Dir: Alexander Mackendrick

The last of the Ealing comedies, this classic affectionately celebrates the quaint tradition of English innocence.

2008

Tues 5th February Melinda & Melinda

US (2004) Stars: Radha Mitchell, Will Ferrell, Chiwetel Ejiofor & Chloe Sevigny. Dir: Woody Allen

Radha Mitchell stars as an archetypal Woody Allen intellectual, having her life shown from two perspectives - tragic and comic.

Tues 4th March The Wind that Shakes the Barley

GB (2006) Dir: Ken Loach

Set in the lead-up to the Irish Civil War of 1922, this is an epic, romantic yet hardheaded thriller about the human costs of guerilla warfare. Cannes Palme d'Or winner.

Tues 1st April Das Leben der Anderen (Lives of Others)

Germany (2006) Stars: Ulrich Muhe. Dir: Florian Henckel van Donnersmarck

Muhe plays a GDR agent in a rare and fascinating snapshot of life behind the Berlin Wall. Oscar for Best Foreign Language Film 2006.

Tues 6th May Tuesdays with Morrie

US (1999) Stars: Jack Lemon, Hank Azaria. Dir: Mick Jackson

When a successful sportswriter discovers that his old professor is ill, he forms a close bond with him and learns what is really important in life.
